

I am very much in favor of the current protection provided by Wisconsin law. I would be very much against weakening the no call provision in any way. It is wonderful not to have to answer any telemarketing phone calls.